

Article - Family Law

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)

§10–214.

Before the State’s Attorney conducts an inquiry under § 10-213 of this subtitle, the State’s Attorney shall notify the accused individual in writing of:

- (1) the time and place of the inquiry;
- (2) the accused individual’s right to appear at the inquiry and to produce evidence or information that relates to the matters examined; and
- (3) the accused individual’s right to testify if the individual:
  - (i) notifies the State’s Attorney of the individual’s desire to testify; and
  - (ii) signs a waiver that permits the individual’s testimony to be used against the individual in any later trial that arises from the inquiry.

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)